Copy of letter from the pensioner:-

I was asked to appear before the Medical Board on the 17th instant for examination in connection with my application for commutation of my pension. I came here in connection with an urgent marriage and other affairs and expected to be in time for examination, but I am sorry the purpose I came here for is not finished yet and renders my stay here absolutely necessary for some time longer. If I do not stay here, I am likely to incur a heavy loss. I am therefore reluctantly obliged to request that the Board may kindly be pleased to excuse me from attendance and to fix some other date for my examination. Reply may kindly be addressed to my Bellary address. Begging to be excused for the trouble.
